Kate (Sept. 17), a source says, "is extremely interested in" the Anna Freud Centre, which specializes in kids' mental health.

DUCHESS KATE BANGIN' NEW LOOK!

Hair she is! Duchess Kate officially debuted a new 'do September 17 at London's Anna Freud Centre — her first solo public engagement since welcoming Princess Charlotte four months ago. Her cheek-length bangs "were done by a stylist during a home visit," reveals a source close to the royal, also mom of 2-year-old Prince George. Chalk up the change to the end of maternity leave. Since May, Kate and Prince William, both 33, have been nesting at their Anmer Hall estate in the English countryside. "They had a perfect summer," says a family pal. "But now they're both ready to return to public engagements. They're feeling refreshed."

THE MOTHER LODE Downtime isn't missed. Kate "likes being busy," adds the first insider. "She still has plenty of time with Charlotte and George. It's a good balance." Stealing moments with her husband, who works as an air ambulance pilot two hours away in Cambridge, is the challenge. "His schedule is heavy," the source says of William's nine-hour shifts. "He usually stays in Cambridge rather than commute four days a week." Still, upcoming date nights will be glam. The pair plan to attend the October 26 premiere of Spectre in London. Adds a source, "William is a longtime James Bond fan, and he's extremely excited!"

Did She Really Say That?!

Mamma mia! Kris Jenner, 59, created new controversies September 16

"I say 'Jenner.'"
On being unable to refer to ex Caitlyn Jenner by her post-transition first name

"I got really upset, and then it was done and I had to let it go."
On daughter Kylie Jenner's decision to get lip fillers at age 17*

The pair (in 2013) announced their split in August.

IS HE FAKING IT?

Medical mystery: The Real Housewives of Orange County's Vicki Gunvalson supplied a radiology report on the September 21 episode to dispel rumors her now–ex-boyfriend Brooks Ayers faked his cancer diagnosis. (Her Bravo castmates became suspicious when Ayers, 48, opted out of chemotherapy for non-Hodgkin's lymphoma.) "Are all these doctors lying?" she asked. The women remained unconvinced, accusing him of forging the document. But a pal tells Us his illness is real. "He absolutely has cancer," contends a source close to Gunvalson, 53. "And Vicki's supporting Brooks' path to get better and recover."

25 Things You Don't Know About Me

The Nashville star, 26, fills Us in Nashville airs on ABC Wednesdays at 10 P.M.

1. I did my first commercial when I was 11 months old, for a Playskool toy train.
2. My daughter [Kaya, 9 months] is in the 88th percentile for height, no thanks to me!
3. I'm one-fourth German.
4. My daughter's middle name is Evdokia, which was her dad's grandmother's name.
5. I can't kill bugs. But I make an exception for mosquitoes!
6. I have 15 Duke University alumni in my family.

7. I'm allergic to cats, but that doesn't keep me from petting them.

8. I have horrible stage fright!
9. I'd really love to direct someday.
10. I've been told I talk in my sleep.
11. [Fiancé] Wladimir [Klitschko, 39] and my first date was at the Magic Castle in L.A.
12. I've done a duet with Steven Tyler!

13. I was a cheerleader in middle school but only made it to one game.

14. Wlad — yes, pronounced Vlad — and I met at the launch of a charity coffee-table book. I had no idea who he was and vice versa.
15. My dad owns and runs Smith's Bar in NYC's Times Square.

16. I'm one of the few people in the world who has ridden a zebra!

17. Without planning it, my best friend and I had babies six months apart! Dream come true.
18. My mom runs a website called Hayden's Closet where people can buy clothes, shoes and accessories, and 30 percent of the money goes to charity.

19. I had my daughter in Hawaii.

20. I love to do my own stunts.
21. I sometimes read only my scenes in Nashville so that I can watch the show as a fan.

22. I love you, chicken noodle soup!

23. I was 110 pounds before pregnancy and 153 pounds by the time I gave birth!
24. I'm scared of the dark, so I sleep with the TV on even though I know it's bad for you.
25. I suffered a bit of postpartum depression. You're not alone or crazy, ladies!

MOMMY Nearest

Hollywood ignored logic to make these onscreen families

LORRAINE TOUSSAINT

On Fox's Rosewood (Wednesdays, 8 P.M.), the actress, 55, plays the mom of Morris Chestnut, 46. "Black don't crack," she joked August 6. "You won't have any problems buying that I'm his mother."

SALLY FIELD

In 1994's Forrest Gump, a then–48-year-old Field mothered Tom Hanks, then 38. "[Tom] still calls me Mama," she admitted in 2013. She previously played his love interest in 1988's Punchline.

AMY POEHLER

She's not like regular moms . . . because she would have birthed Regina George at age 7. In 2004's Mean Girls, the comedian, then 33 (left), parented Rachel McAdams, who played a high schooler at 26.

WINONA RYDER

Maybe things work differently in space? For J.J. Abrams' 2009 Star Trek adaptation, the Oscar nominee, then 37, failed to convince as the mother of Spock's Zachary Quinto, then 31.

ANGELINA JOLIE PITT

Jolie Pitt, 40, has said she "wasn't sure how" the one-year gap between her and her offspring, Colin Farrell, 39, in 2004's Alexander, would work: "Somehow, together, we became mother and son."

WHAT'S IN MY BAG?

Going au naturel! Nikki Reed, 27, spills her vegan tote for Us

I'm the definition of a crunchy-granola girl," admits the star of Fox's Sleepy Hollow (returns October 1 at 9 P.M.). "I mean, I make my own almond milk!" The L.A. native, married to Ian Somerhalder, 36, empties her Freedom of Animals purse for Us.

HEAD TO TOE

"I have my favorite stuff called HollyBeth Organics All Over Cream. It's Rose Geranium scent. You can put it on your face, in your hair, on your hands, whatever. It's a great hydrating moisture mask."

PEDAL PUSHER

"My iPhone case is actually fitted for my mountain bike. It's called a Quad Lock. It snaps onto the front of the bike so it doesn't fall off."

IN HER ELEMENT

"I have a bottle of Wellness colloidal silver. It basically cures everything. You put a little bit under your tongue, and it works like Emergen-C. You can also swallow it. It's really amazing. I'm all about the holistic approach."

NO SUBSTITUTES

"I carry little packets of SweetLeaf, which is a natural stevia sweetener. I don't want to go to a restaurant and have them tell me they only have Sweet'n Low!"

BEACH VIBES

"I have little scents that are oil rollers from TulumOil.com. Their Tulum scent is my favorite."

SAMANTHA & ELLEN

Taking It Public!

After eight months of dating, Ellen Page was thrilled to introduce her artist girlfriend, Samantha Thomas, 34, to the world at the Toronto International Film Festival premiere of her movie Freeheld. "I'm in love!" gushed Page, 28. "Walking down the red carpet holding my girlfriend's hand is pretty special." Especially because making the drama, about the rights of a same-sex couple, is what inspired Page to come out as gay last year.

The pair (in NYC Sept. 14) met at an event this summer.

CHRISTIE & JOHN

Not Playing Games

John Mellencamp didn't heed the 72-hour rule following his first date with Christie Brinkley. Just one day after their September 14 dinner at NYC's Bowery Hotel, the Indiana-based rocker, 63, in town for The Late Show With Stephen Colbert, invited the supermodel, 61, to watch him perform. Later, the duo grabbed a bite at Chalk Point Kitchen. "They hit it off," says a mutual pal of the pair. "He thinks she's gorgeous and she thinks he's smart!"

KEITH & NICOLE

He's Her No. 1 Fan!

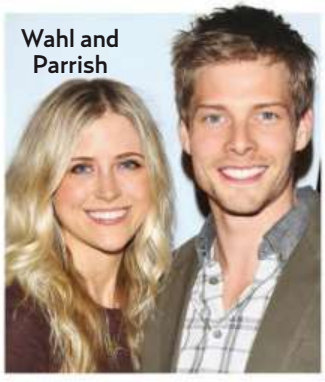

Nicole Kidman admits she was "terrified" to return to the stage after 17 years. But on opening night of Photograph 51 September 14 in London, she could count on one very friendly face in the crowd: husband Keith Urban. "Keith was so excited for her," says a source of the singer, 47, who's been splitting his time between L.A. and England. When he's in town, Kidman, 48, "is much happier," says the source. "They do simple things, like go to a pub for dinner."

The Record

➜ Lifetime High

Weeds alum Hunter Parrish, 28, married social-media strategist Kathryn Wahl September 13 at the Flying Caballos Ranch in San Luis Obispo, California.

Wahl and Parrish

➜ Spoiler Alert

Kit Harington, 28, coyly revealed that his Game of Thrones character, Jon Snow, may return next season, even though he was stabbed — seemingly to death — in the season 5 finale. "Let's just say that Game of Thrones will remain a part of my life for a while," he told Belgian magazine Humo. "I'll probably be in my thirties when it's over."

➜ Hair Scare

Kylie Jenner, 18, was assaulted by a fan who pulled her hair while the reality star was leaving a Chris Brown concert in Anaheim, California, September 18.

➜ Ray of Light

Madonna, 57, told her Rebel Heart tour audience September 19 that ex-husband Sean Penn, 55, recently wrote her a letter after attending her NYC concert. "He finally appreciates my art," she said. The singer explained that 30 years earlier, the actor accused her of performing in revealing clothing.

➜ A New New Girl

Megan Fox, 29, will temporarily replace Zooey Deschanel, 35, in Fox's New Girl while the actress takes a maternity leave for four episodes.

➜ Fashion Faux Pas?

Jessica Simpson, 35, caused a social-media frenzy after slurring her words during a September 17 appearance on the Home Shopping Network. The network's president, Bill Brand, came to her defense: "She was a top-notch professional."

➜ The Trump Card

Taran Killam, 33, will play Donald Trump on Saturday Night Live in the upcoming season.

Teigen and Legend

➜ Labor of Love

Chrissy Teigen, 29, and John Legend, 36, will produce Ordinary People, an ABC sitcom pilot based on their marriage. The series would follow an interracial couple with polar-opposite personalities.

➜ So Taylor-Made

Musician Ryan Adams, 40, released a cover album of Taylor Swift's 1989 September 21. "Ryan's music helped shape my songwriting," the 25-year-old tweeted. "This is surreal and dreamlike."

➜ Help Wanted

Tori Spelling, 42, tweeted that her Maltese-terrier–mix pup, Mitzi, went missing September 17.

Joan tweeted that her "darling sister" (in 2015) deserves "a throne."

Jackie's Brave Battle

➜ Bestselling romance novelist Jackie Collins lost her six-year struggle with breast cancer in Beverly Hills September 19 at age 77. The author of June's release The Santangelos and 31 other books kept her illness from family members — including her sister, Dynasty actress Joan, 82 — until recently to avoid burdening them. "She was a true inspiration, a trailblazer for women in fiction," her daughters Tracy (with late spouse Wallace Austin), Tiffany and Rory (with late husband Oscar Lerman) tell Us. At the time of her death, Jackie had been writing an autobiography. "I don't talk about my personal life, so people don't know that much about me," she told Us in May. "I've nursed two men through terminal illnesses; my first husband was a drug addict. . . . I want it to be helpful."

Working out during pregnancy helps, if you're able to do so, then keeping yourself active after. You want to keep healthy. It's important not to give up!

Bethany's Mommy Confidence Soars

The idea of motherhood was intimidating for Bethany Hamilton. Before son Tobias' June 1 arrival, the pro surfer, who lost her arm in a 2003 shark attack, fretted about caring for a newborn. "When I think about a squirming baby — changing the diaper, just me and this squirmy baby . . . ," said the 25-year-old (in a September 15 post with husband Adam Dirks, above). TOM & GISELE

The Secret He Kept

The shady Brady jet ride gets worse

Turns out more went down on that private jet than Tom Brady shared with wife Gisele Bündchen. A month after a photo surfaced of Ben Affleck's nanny Christine Ouzounian wearing the NFL pro's Super Bowl rings on a flight to Las Vegas (inset), a source tells Us, "there's information that Gisele doesn't know about. It could really screw things up." When the model, 35, caught wind of 38-year-old Brady's ride with the actor and his then-fling, she threatened divorce, says the source: "And she told Tom she wasn't going to the [New England] Patriots' season opener." But as stories of their marital woes emerged, "they decided to pretend things were fine," says the insider. Now the duo (parents of Benjamin, 5, and Vivian, 2) just want to move on. Adds the source, "Tom promised her things will be different with them."

AMBER & JOHNNY

Abandoning His Ship

Why rock the boat? Johnny Depp, 52, recently sold his 156-foot luxury yacht because wife Amber Heard, 29, refused to climb aboard, an insider tells Hot Stuff. Dubbed the Vajoliroja in 2007 after his longtime former love Vanessa Paradis and their kids, Lily-Rose, 16, and Jack, 13, the ship was a reminder of the Black Mass lead's past. "Johnny bought the yacht for Vanessa," adds the insider. "And Amber is still jealous of her." Heard's rapport with his brood is smoother sailing. When Depp's band, Hollywood Vampires, played near L.A. September 17, Heard hung in the DJ booth with Jack. "They have a great relationship," says a second source. "Amber seems like a good stepmom."

They're bunking with Kris Jenner through the winter, says a source: "Kanye and Kim are doing dramatic renovations."

Amy Is Going Solo!

The funny business is over for Amy Poehler and Nick Kroll: A source exclusively tells Us that the pair of two years have split. "They just couldn't make the relationship work with their schedules," says another insider close to the Parks and Recreation actress, 44 — who attended the September 20 Emmys with pal Brooke Posch — and the Kroll Show star, 37. Upcoming projects constantly came between Kroll and the mom of Archie, 6, and Abel, 5 (with ex-husband Will Arnett, 45). A decade and a half before Bindi Irwin stepped onto the Dancing With the Stars stage, she tried out her moves in front of an audience of one: her father, Crocodile Hunter Steve. As her mom, Terri, tells it, baby Bindi would toddle around their home inside Queensland's Australia Zoo, and fearless wildlife expert Steve, known for wrestling crocs on his famed docuseries, would melt. "My mom said every time I danced as a baby, he'd start crying!" says Bindi of her dad, who died in 2006 at age 44 after a stingray pierced his heart. The 17-year-old is eliciting a similarly emotional reaction on season 21 of the ABC competition (Mondays, 8 P.M.). Her spirited jive (to "Crocodile Rock," naturally) during the September 14 premiere earned her a standing ovation and the evening's highest scores.

But it's not the tough judges — or the 13 million viewers — the teen is trying to wow. "I hope that my dad would be proud," says Bindi, who's already following her father's boot-clad path, spreading his message of animal conservation and starring in her own

Daddy's Girl

Even as a tyke, says the DWTS star, "I knew I wanted to carry on in Dad's footsteps" wildlife documentaries. On the September 21 show, she paid tribute to her "hero" once more. She and her partner, Derek Hough, tangoed to AC/DC's "You Shook Me All Night Long," a hard-rock jam Bindi says she remembers dancing to with her dad. The acclaimed performance and dedication would have floored Steve, says Terri, who temporarily relocated from Australia to L.A. with Bindi's brother, Robert, 11: "He'd be crying and telling everyone how proud he was!" Before jumping into rehearsals September 18, Bindi, dating University of Central Florida freshman Chandler Powell, 18, joined Us' Ingrid Meilan for omelets at L.A.'s Marmalade Café.

Doing DWTS meant trading khaki for sequins. Is it surreal?

When I watched the show when I was younger, I thought, I want to be a real-life Disney princess filled with that much confidence!

How do you feel about wearing those skimpy costumes?

There's so much pressure put on, not just young girls, but boys and adults. There are a lot of ideas about how you should be and how you should fit in. I'm a big believer of being true to yourself because what you consider an imperfection is what makes you beautiful and brilliant. I'm a girl from Australia. I'm happy with who I am.

You're basically wearing a bathing suit, but you look confident!

People don't see but I'm actually as nervous about wearing the costumes as I am about dancing. It's not just the outfit — it's more the heels. It's so tough! I'm trying to learn to dance and trying not to fall over at the same time. The others on the show have worn heels. But for me, it's like, I don't bedazzle my khakis, and I can't wrangle a crocodile or rhino in heels. I'm the first to admit I'm scared. I'm terrified! But that's what's so great. I'm stepping out of my comfort zone and giving it my best shot.

You're scared? But you work with crocs and snakes!

I've always found that, growing up, people scared me more than animals did. When you work with a crocodile, it's this huge adrenaline rush, but it's not fear.

Did you inherit that mentality from your dad?

I wanted to be just like him. When I was about 4, we were filming along the west coast of Australia. At one point we stopped the boat and there were so many dolphins. Dad said, "Let's jump in!" I had floaties on and I held onto the captain's neck. The dolphins would just jump over our heads! On that same trip, my dad was catching venomous snakes, and I was like, I have to be like Dad! I ended up catching a life-threatening animal — just kidding, it was this teeny, tiny gecko. I showed it to the camera and talked about it for 10 minutes, talking about how cute it was until I released it into the wild. I was so proud to be like him.

You have so much footage of your dad. Do you watch it often?

Oh, for sure. We have home movies and the documentary footage, and so we watch them a lot. Most days we'll watch something just to give us that little bit of a reminder. I'm so lucky that I have that stuff. My whole life — all these little memories — have been captured. We had all these big adventures, but it's those little moments that shape you.

What about off-camera bonding?

In the morning before school, we'd drive on his motorbike in the zoo and get ice cream for breakfast! My mom would be like, "She hasn't

Terri: Done With Dating

The widow says she already had her "happily ever after"

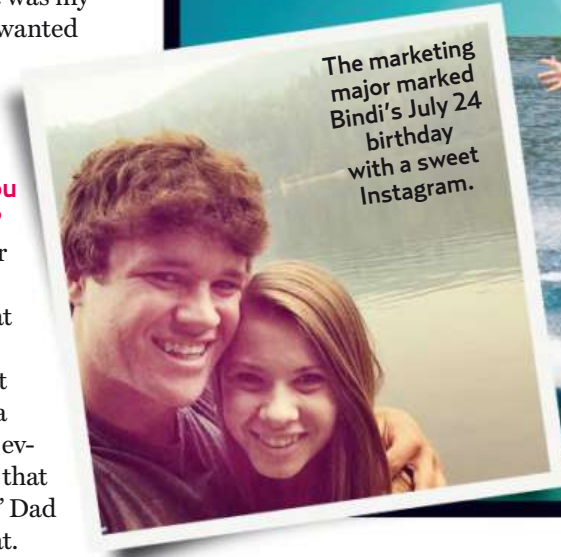

Unlike her daughter, Terri isn't eager for romance. "Dating is not on the radar," says the 51-year-old single mom, who wed Steve in 1992 (left), a year after they met. "A lot of people suffer loss and find love again, and that's brilliant. But I am honestly not lonely. I just really miss Steve." The Oregon native jokes she isn't the best at dating, either. Before meeting Steve at his family's zoo, "I hadn't gone out in so long, I had the unique opportunity of having a couple of lovely women ask me out," she recalls. "I had to say, 'I'm flattered, but I'm straight!'"

In a Sept. 4 Instagram, Powell dubbed himself Bindi's biggest fan.

Her Long-Distance Love

No longer just mates! Bindi calls her romance with Florida-based wakeboarder Powell "wonderful" brushed her teeth or hair or anything!" But off we'd go.

The marketing major marked Bindi's July 24 birthday with a sweet Instagram.

You were 8 when he was killed. Do you recall the moment?
It's something you can't really describe. When it first happened, I didn't really believe it. And I still do sometimes think that he'll walk through the door like, "Surprise! Just kidding! Got you!"

Days after he died, you spoke at his memorial service. What made you want to do that?
I went to my mom and said, "I want to stand up and thank everybody." I felt like it was my purpose to carry on. I wanted to be strong for him. Dad was the strongest person I ever knew.

Did his death make you wary around animals?
For me, there was never any fear. That was a complete accident, what happened. And Dad always said, "I just don't want to be grabbed by a crocodile because then everyone will say, 'I knew that would happen to him!'" Dad used to laugh about that. It's never been a thought at all, because that's who we are. I've known what I wanted to do with my life since I was 4 years old. I want to make sure that my family's legacy lives on.

Your dad joked that anyone who dated you would have to swim across a crocodile pond. Is your boyfriend up to the challenge?
I've yet to make him do that, but maybe one day! He's a real gentleman and so sweet. My brother approves. I don't know who loves him more — me or Robert!

How did you two meet?
He's a professional wakeboarder and he travels all around the world. I was at the zoo one day in November 2013 and was told, "This wakeboarder is here with his family." And I thought I'd go show them around a little bit. He tracked me down through the zoo and was like, "If she doesn't want to stay in contact that's totally fine, but here's my email!" We stayed in touch and became great friends. I can't really say when it turned into more. It just evolved over time and bloomed into this wonderful thing.

His college in Florida is 9,145 miles from your home. How do you keep up the romance?
I'm one of those people who's very old-fashioned because I love to write. So, often I'll write him letters! Or thank goodness for FaceTime and Skype and calling, all of that. And he's coming to visit L.A. and wants to see a few shows. It'll be so nice to have him.

And you said you feel like your father is watching you as well.
I think when we die, we never actually leave. I think he's still with us. He lives in us with everything that we do. For me, I'm trying to carry on my dad's legacy. It's tough. People always say that time heals all wounds. That's probably the biggest lie: It's like losing a piece of your heart. But even though the sun will never shine as brightly, it will shine again. US

Ricky & Allison

Hitched Out West!

Van Veen and Williams herd trailblazers (Hanks! Springsteen!) for their Cowboy State celebration

BY RACHEL PAULA ABRAHAMSON

The bride (with her dad) wore a hand-embroidered tulle and satin silk gown.

Guests stood while officiant Hanks gave his opening remarks, says a source.

"We're really, really thrilled," Allison (Sept. 19) has said of marrying Van Veen.

Allison Williams and Ricky Van Veen had a true Western union. For their September 19 wedding, the Girls actress and the College Humor cofounder chose the secluded 30,000-acre Brush Creek cattle ranch in Saratoga, Wyoming. "They said their vows beside a creek that overlooked ranch land and mountains," says a source of the stone-studded outdoor amphitheater. "There was very little decor, just the natural beauty of their surroundings."

The 150 guests, outfitted in cocktail attire, were sight enough. Katy Perry, Mindy Kaling, Seth Meyers and other notables sat rapt as the 27-year-old Yale grad — in a custom Oscar de la Renta gown and Brian Atwood wedges — was escorted down the aisle by her father, TV news anchor Brian, at 5:15 P.M. (Mom Jane is also a broadcast journalist.) As a string quartet played, Connecticut native Allison met her 34-year-old love of nearly five years. Adds the source, "When they got to the altar, Brian gave Allison a long hug and kiss."

STARRY NIGHT

Then Tom Hanks took over. A close Williams family friend, the lead of October's Bridge of Spies officiated a 30-minute ceremony from a wooden podium. Perry rose from the audience — where guests sat "on benches laid with blue cushions and blankets," adds the insider — to perform a song. John Mayer, her off-on boyfriend of three years and Van Veen's pal, "watched proudly," continues the source. "When Katy returned to her seat, they held hands." A tented celebration followed, featuring cocktails and desserts from local favorite Sweet Marie's Bakeshop.

The reception capped off a weekend of adventure at the sprawling, all-inclusive property, which offers a luxurious, fireplace-warmed lodge decorated with antler chandeliers and sheepskin chair covers. (Romantic TV-free rooms start at $700 a night.) Between a September 17 welcome party and a rehearsal dinner the following evening, adds the insider, "there were tons of optional activities." Horseback riding, zip-lining, yoga, fly-fishing and more outings were prearranged by the couple, says the insider: "Allison and Ricky wanted to plan a fun weekend for their friends and family." US

Perry "seemed very into" Mayer, says a source.

DAD'S RETURN TO TV

Brian Williams' job as MSNBC breaking news anchor won't come with a honeymoon period. The former NBC Nightly News lead, who served a six-month suspension for lying about being shot down in a helicopter in Iraq circa 2003, started at the political sister network September 22. That day, Pope Francis arrived in Washington, D.C. "It's bittersweet for Brian," says a source close to the 56-year-old, who began his TV career in 1981. "He had to give up a bigger job, but he's happy to be back at work."

Brian (in 2009) said his misstatements were "clearly ego-driven."

BABY TALK WITH Maci

Teen Mom's Bookout introduces 4-month-old Jayde — known at home as "Sassypants"!

BY SARAH GROSSBART

For Maci Bookout, being a second-time parent was easier from the very start. The star of MTV's Teen Mom OG arrived at a Tennessee hospital hours before a scheduled induction May 29. But before doctors could give her the medication to kick-start labor, 7 pound, 15 ounce Jayde Carter McKinney was already on her way. "Everything went quick and smooth — pretty much textbook," says Bookout, who had endured a harrowing 37 hours of labor with son Bentley, now 6. "I wasn't spending a lot of my energy on fear." Four months later, the social-media consultant is still (relatively) angst-free. Gone is the scared teen who handled parenting duties in between near-constant fights with then-fiancé Ryan Edwards. Now "I know what to expect," says Bookout. And her nearly three-year romance with Taylor McKinney, 26, a custom-countertop sales rep, has been an asset too: "Having a supportive partner makes it much more enjoyable." The 24-year-old recounts her journey to Us.

LEARNING SHE WAS EXPECTING

"To be honest, with Bentley it felt like an out-of-body experience. I was just kind of watching myself go through the motions and wondering if it was real life or not. With Jayde, getting pregnant was unbelievable to us because we had been told I wasn't going to be able to. [Bookout had been diagnosed with polycystic ovary syndrome.] We had talked many times about wanting children, so we would more than likely adopt. This felt like a miracle because it happened so soon after we had decided I would stop taking my birth control. We took 12 pregnancy tests, one after another, because we legitimately didn't believe them."

BABY MEETS WORLD

"With Bentley, it was just this overwhelming sensation. It's something that you always hear about and think about, but you can never imagine loving someone as much as you do your children. Right after I had Jayde, I had my mom go out in the waiting room and bring Bentley in by himself. He was tearing up and just crawled into bed and was petting her. It was the sweetest thing in the whole world."

Jayde's nursery is decorated in blues and purples. "I'm not really about the pink," Bookout says.

SPLIT PERSONALITIES

"Bentley was very chill, easygoing. Jayde's a bit more dramatic. If she's hungry, she's hungry right then. She's also not a big fan of getting her clothes changed or taking a bath because she doesn't like to be cold. When you're feeding her and go to burp her, she gives a little attitude, like, 'Give me my bottle back. I'm pissed.' We call her 'Sassypants.'"

THE GENDER DIFFERENCE

"I do feel a different bond with Jayde. With Bentley, for a long time, I was like, 'He's a boy. All I have to do is play with him, and the men in his life are going to teach him how to be a man.' With Jayde, it's 100 percent my responsibility. I'm already thinking about how I'm going to show her things and raise a woman."

SAME SMILES

"Bentley has my mouth and eyes, but as he gets older, he resembles Ryan, especially in his mannerisms. Jayde has my mouth too, but she has Taylor's nose and a head full of dark hair. It's getting more red by the day, though, which is what I was praying for."

HITTING MILESTONES

"Talking was big and walking was big, but Bentley's biggest moment was when he could ride his bicycle without training wheels. He started biking when he was 2, so it was a really big deal! Jayde has rolled over a couple of times. And she likes to kick a lot too. I feel like if she could actually get up and walk away, she'd be gone in a heartbeat."

SUPPORT STAFF

"I don't like to say that Ryan didn't do anything [when Bentley was a baby], because he went to work every single day and he paid the bills. But as far as taking care of Bentley, those duties were kind of nonexistent. Things have gotten much, much better since then. Taylor has it easy because he's got somebody with experience — things are much less hectic because I know what to do. But Taylor has taken to fatherhood wonderfully. He's actually changed quite a few poopy diapers. I think he finally realized it wasn't actually going to kill him. Bentley will help change Jayde too — but only if he gets a quarter. And it's 50 cents for dirty diapers!" US

Bentley "is absolutely in love" with his sister, says Bookout.

BIG BRO BENTLEY

Bentley is ready for a teammate! The first grader ("He can already read and do basic math," brags Mom) is eager for his "Baby Jayde" to grow into a true sidekick. "He's always saying, 'I can't wait until I can teach her how to play baseball and swim,'" Bookout says of her son, who will also tackle basketball this winter. Until Jayde is mobile, says Bookout, he's enjoying being her protector: "If we're in the car, he'll put the shade down on her car seat so the sun doesn't get in her eyes. He's really sweet!"

JOHN, THE GRANDDAD

Stamos is sexier than ever in an unexpected role

A swinging dude!" That's how John Stamos describes his character in the new Fox sitcom Grandfathered (premiering September 29, 8 P.M.). He plays Jimmy, a carefree bachelor who, on one life-altering day, discovers he has a son — and a granddaughter. Jimmy "is like George Clooney before he turned against everything and got married," cracks the single eternal sex symbol, now 52. The California native, who will also reprise his iconic role as Uncle Jesse in Netflix's 2016 Full House reboot, tells Us more.

Q: So, is it weird to play a grandpa?
The first call I got was, "What do you think of Grandpa [as the title]?" I said, "What do you think of f--k you?!" I pitched every other title. "How about Handsome Guy in His Fifties Who Finds Out He Has a Kid?"

Q: Do you relate to Jimmy at all?
Yes. People sometimes think I have it made. But when you pull back the curtain, you find I'm just a lost, insecure, scared guy like anybody else.

Q: Think you may have secret kids?
I'm sure I would know. [Laughs.] As soon as the Full House residuals came in, they'd be knocking on my door: "Hey, Dad!"

Q: Any desire to have a family?
I would like to be a father someday, because I'd love it. I am a baby whisperer. If the kids on the show cry, I whisper, "If you stop crying, you can have a clothing line!"

"I always loved . . . being around grandfather types," says Stamos.

The sitcom is "sharp and edgy," Stamos tells Us.

Octavia Spencer

The Oscar winner was "funny as hell" playing abolitionist Harriet Tubman, Waters tells Us.

Maya Rudolph

"She's like a female Scarface," he quips of the SNL alum (as drug trafficker Griselda Blanco).

TIPSY TALES OF THE PAST

Will Ferrell

"We put him in a cardboard plane!" Waters says of Ferrell, who plays author (and spy!) Roald Dahl.

Drunk History creator Derek Waters, 36, promises "lots of new faces" in season 3 of his Comedy Central series (Tuesdays, 10:30 P.M.). The gist: Stars play famous figures and lip-synch dialogue that's spoken by an intoxicated narrator. He gives Us the scoop.

WHAT KELIS IS COOKING

These days, Kelis' meals bring one boy to the yard. Son Knight, 6 (with ex-husband Nas), "loves to try new foods," says the My Life on a Plate cookbook author. "I've been making different items — duck, chickpea fritters — and he's like, 'What are we eating tonight, Mom?'" The "Milkshake" singer and Cordon Bleu–trained chef, 36, expecting her second child, shares a "crisp, healthy" snack with Us.

Spinach and Chickpea Fritters With Yogurt Cucumber Sauce

This cookbook represents "the core of me," she says. ($17, amazon.com)

SAUCE

- 1½ cups plain Greek yogurt
- ¼ cup finely chopped cucumber
- 2 tbsp minced yellow onion
- 2 garlic cloves, minced
- 1 tbsp fresh lemon juice
- 1 tsp kosher salt

FRITTERS

- 2 15-oz cans chickpeas, drained
- 1 cup fresh spinach leaves, loosely packed
- ¼ large yellow onion, roughly chopped
- 3 tbsp all-purpose flour
- 3 garlic cloves, smashed and chopped
- 1 fresh dill sprig, roughly chopped
- 1½ tsp kosher salt
- ½ tsp black pepper
- ¼ tsp ground sage
- ¼ tsp ground coriander
- Canola or vegetable oil

TO MAKE SAUCE

1. In a medium bowl, stir together all ingredients until combined. Cover and refrigerate.

TO MAKE FRITTERS

1. Place all ingredients except oil in a food processor fitted with a metal blade. Puree until smooth. Transfer batter to a mixing bowl.
2. In a medium saucepan, heat 3 inches of oil to 350 degrees. With your hands, shape batter into 1-tablespoon balls; flatten into discs and place on wax paper or a cutting board.
3. A few at a time, fry discs in the oil until golden brown, about 5 minutes each. Drain fritters on paper towels. Sprinkle with salt to taste. Serve warm with yogurt sauce on the side. Makes about 48.

An Elaborate (But Worth It!) A.M. Routine

Trust top doctors: The path to better skin begins with a nine-step regimen in which each product boosts the next

Simple Micellar Make-up Remover Wipes (Georgia May Jagger is a fan of the brand), $6 for 25, walmart.com

Start with a clean slate by swapping suds for micelles, which cleanse without drying, says NYC dermatologist Doris Day. The magnetlike molecules in Simple's saturated cloths sap residue from yesterday's P.M. products.

Shaping Facial Lift (Naya Rivera is a fan of the brand), $80, clarinsusa.com

Jump on the facial-sculpting bandwagon! Massage two pumps of Clarins' fluid over the cheeks and jawline. Ginger extract spurs lymphatic drainage to reduce puffiness, while kaki, a fruit native to Japan, prevents skin-slackening.

iS Clinical Youth Intensive Crème (Katie Lowes swears by it), $195, greatskin.com

Think of iS Clinical's collagen-producing copper peptide whip as icing on a cake, suggests Day: It locks in all the goodness from steps 1 to 6 (i.e., moisture and active ingredients) for hours. Apply all over the face and neck.

Physical Matte UV Defense SPF 50, $34, skinceuticals.com

Slathering on sunscreen with at least an SPF of 30 is a given. But Skinceuticals' mousse-to-powder shield pulls double duty as a primer. It's chock-full of translucent color spheres that banish redness and camouflage dark spots.

Iris Extract Activating Treatment Essence (Liv Tyler uses it), $45, kiehls.com

Before moving to moisturizers, apply Kiehl's essence. The alcohol-free, iris extract–filled featherweight lotion restores skin's pH balance to "deliver the antioxidants in serums and creams into the skin's deepest layers," says Day.

Olay Regenerist Eye Lifting Serum, $22, ulta.com

Olay's serum firms under-eye skin and lightens dark circles thanks to vitamin B derivative niacinamide. Pat onto the delicate area with a finger to avoid "displacing the tissue," says Sofía Vergara's dermatologist Dendy Engelman.

Superstart Skin Renewal Booster (Jessica Chastain loves the brand), $65, elizabeth arden.com

An allover pre-serum serum is a smart idea, says Engelman: "It helps absorb and enhance the efficacy of whatever comes next." Elizabeth Arden's sea fennel and flaxseed extract cocktail also protects the skin's barrier.

Sugar Lip Serum Advanced Therapy, $35, fresh.com

Lips need TLC too: Saliva contains digestive enzymes that break down the exterior and cause chapping throughout the day. One pump of Fresh's Kigelia Africana fruit extract–laced serum, Engelman says, "improves elasticity."

Coconut Balm Dotcom (Kiernan Shipka has it), $12, glossier.com

Plump fine lines around your mouth with omega 6 and 9 fatty acids in Glossier's coconut-scented salve. Advises Engelman: "Make sure to coat the outside corners, because those tend to recess as we get older."

And Don't Forget About ...

. . . your hands! Because skin on the back of hands is extremely thin and prone to sun damage, "it gives our age away," says Engelman. Reach for Hand MD's lotion: It packs an SPF 30 wallop and employs shea butter and caffeine for smoother skin after one use.

Hand MD Daily Hand Renewal SPF 30+ cream, $28, qvc.com

OPENS FRIDAY 9/25

The Intern

Anne Hathaway's wholesome comedy doesn't quite get the job done

★★½☆

Mom and Dad will love it. But despite its appealing premise — Anne Hathaway attempts to Lean In while wearing a superchic wardrobe — this lukewarm effort likely won't be a future girls'-night-in classic. Her Jules Ostin runs a popular fashion e-commerce site in Brooklyn by day and a household by night. She needs help, and she gets it from an unexpected source: her new, polite 70-year-old intern, Ben (a dapper Robert De Niro). At first, she's reluctant to get close to the astutely observant widower. Plus, hello? It's weird that this senior citizen is hanging around for free. But then Jules becomes comforted by his presence. Soon, the teddy bear is babysitting her cute daughter and escorting her on a business trip. It's all sweeter than a candy store. Alas, some of the humor is as stale as weeks-old licorice. Jules and her millennial cohorts treat Ben as if they've never met a man over age 50. (He shaves on Sundays! He isn't on Facebook!) The poor gent also gets an erection from the in-house masseuse. Our alleged kick-ass heroine, meanwhile, makes misguided decisions on the domestic front as she cries her way through job tumult. Forget her respectful intern: This girl needs a power lunch with Miranda Priestley pronto!

Redmayne spent a year prepping for the role.

Toronto FILM FESTIVAL ROUNDUP

THE DANISH GIRL

Hope you liked seeing Eddie Redmayne work the Oscar circuit this year. The reigning best actor is a wonder playing tortured painter Einar Wegener — who, in 1930, became the first man to undergo a sex-change operation. (It Girl of 2015 Alicia Vikander is his supportive, if confounded, wife.) The artful and poignant period drama couldn't be timelier.

ANOMALISA

The title is weird. The movie is weirder. But it's also a brilliant and sublimely funny work of art from writer Charlie Kaufman (Adaptation, Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind). Rendered in total stop-motion animation, this is the story of a motivational speaker who finds love while staying in a Cincinnati hotel. It's a one-of-a-kind experience on many levels.

MISS YOU ALREADY

Put aside that worn-out Beaches DVD, friends — this shamelessly sappy weepfest is the fresh wind beneath your wings. Jess (Drew Barrymore) and Milly (Toni Collette) are lifelong party girls and besties who have always been there for each other. Their bond strengthens even more after Milly is diagnosed with breast cancer. Though not a Great Film by any means, it expertly captures the importance of female friendship. And the importance of Christian Louboutins.

DEMOLITION

Jake Gyllenhaal's versatility of late has been remarkable. This time he's an investment banker who, after the sudden death of his wife, takes his anger and sadness to extremes. (See: the drill in his hands, right.) With the electrifying star at the wheel, the film careens in jagged, unpredictable directions.

Gyllenhaal wants to destroy his belongings.

ROOM

Don't be put off by the bleak premise: Based on the bestseller, the powerful drama focuses on a kidnapped woman (Brie Larson, Trainwreck) who tries to keep her 5-year-old son (Jacob Tremblay) safe and emotionally sound while living in captivity in a locked shed. Again, don't be put off by the bleak premise. Their unforgettable saga inspires and, ultimately, uplifts the soul. Swear.

SPOTLIGHT

It took a handful of dogged journalists at The Boston Globe to expose the rampant sexual abuse in the Catholic Church. Their work is chronicled in an intelligent procedural that has the pacing and suspense of a crackling thriller. (And the ace cast includes Michael Keaton, Mark Ruffalo and Rachel McAdams.) It's a best picture nomination shoo-in.

Bullock's rival is played by Billy Bob Thornton.

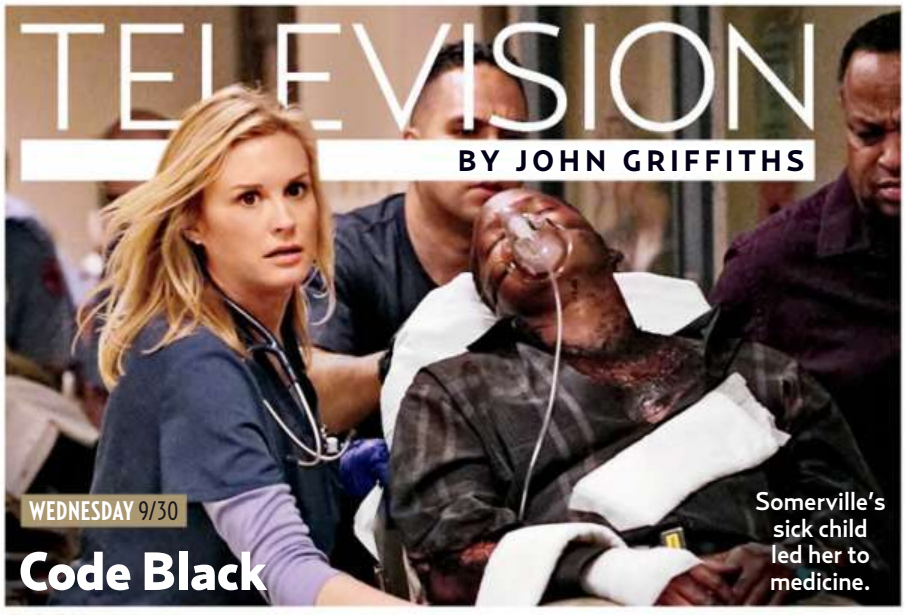

OUR BRAND IS CRISIS

George Clooney was originally slated to play a political consultant who, in 2002, was hired to run a campaign for a presidential candidate in Bolivia. Sandra Bullock took it over and delivers a ferocious performance. (Clooney is a coproducer.) Her moxie keeps this uneven film afloat. She also has a blast on board a familiar mode of transportation. Hmm . . .

Code Black

Somerville's sick child led her to medicine.

★★★½

Shades of Grey's: This impressive hospital drama combines the rookie-doc jitters of Grey's Anatomy's early days with the graphic realism of ER. The hungry residents at Angels Memorial — sober Mario (Benjamin Hollingsworth), older Christa (Bonnie Somerville) — are as well drawn as the conflicts. And Marcia Gay Harden makes a credible ballbuster as she heads up a dingy emergency room that often reaches "code black" status (patient overload). Warning: Some cases may cause watery eyes. (CBS, 10 P.M.)

SUNDAY 10/4

The Affair

This devastating drama of adultery and loss tightens its grip in season 2, with the POVs of all four main characters — writer Noah (Dominic West), paramour Alison (Ruth Wilson), floored wife Helen (Maura Tierney) and seething husband Cole (Joshua Jackson) — now depicted. Flash-forwards to Noah's (still fuzzy) manslaughter charge feel almost superfluous. His and Helen's differing takes on their divorce proceedings are gut-twisting enough. (Showtime, 10 P.M.)

THURSDAY 10/1

The Blacklist

Cat-and-mouse fun for season 3! When last seen, FBI agent Liz (Megan Boone) was on the run after killing the U.S. attorney general, a secret baddie. Now, she and her "accomplice," charismatic crook Raymond Reddington (James Spader), avoid capture in one gaspworthy escape after another. (Seeing playfully imperious Red disguised as a cop is a highlight.) The crime drama is still guilty of dippy dialogue (Liz: "I'm the perfect patsy"), but remains on the must-see list. Magic Mike XXL

Come and get it! Oh, yes, this follow-up film about a pack of male strippers is both light on its feet and a dazzling feat of sexy entertainment. Three years have passed and the titular Mike (Channing Tatum) joins his former cohorts on a road trip from Florida to South Carolina for a stripper convention. Good riddance to the grittiness of the original, replaced here by an easy breeziness that enables the guys to be in on the joke. (Picture Joe Manganiello bumping and grinding and dousing himself with bottled water in a convenience store.) More welcome, the ladies are respected, empowered and receive their dollars' worth during the ridiculously gleeful climactic performances. (Amazon and iTunes, $15–$20)

UPDATE

THE 5 HOTTEST ANTI-AGING SECRETS FOR FALL

1 Growth Hormone: The Long-Awaited "Fountain of Youth"?

Everybody's talking about human growth hormone (hGH). It's been featured on The Doctors, The Today Show, Good Morning America, Fox News, and CNN. Allure magazine, in its "Anti-Aging Special" issue, highlighted growth hormone as its year-end call-out. Shape magazine began a recent growth hormone article with the provocative lead in: "When you see a 50-year-old actress who can pass for 35, you can bet that good genes aren't the only things responsible for her youthful glow." But when the internationally famous medical TV host himself told his audience about an oral compound that's been proven to increase mean, serum (blood) growth hormone levels by 682% and said, "I have been searching for this from the day we started the show. I've been looking for ways of increasing hGH naturally because I don't like getting the injections..." OMG!

Almost immediately, this underground "miracle pill" became a full-blown "anti-aging" phenomenon. The compound is being sold under the trade name SeroVital®-hgh, and it's quickly gaining an almost "cult-like" following because, let's face it… something that just may have the power to reduce wrinkles, tighten saggy skin, decrease body fat, increase lean muscle mass, boost energy, rev up sex drive, and make you look and feel decades — not years, but DECADES — younger is, at the very least, irresistible... especially when it's protected by not one but ten U.S. Patents.‡ But is there a catch? Get all the facts at SeroVital.com. SeroVital is currently available at all Ulta stores, Kohl's, select GNC locations and direct from the manufacturer at 1-800-842-0105 or SeroVital.com. Use promo code HGH340 and get free shipping.†

The Total Shape Up Kit should be used in conjunction with any sensible diet and exercise program. Individual results will vary.

2 The European Wrinkle Pill!

What if someone told you that you could take a simple pill and grow new, younger, vibrant-looking skin? Sounds like something from a sci-fi novel, right? Well... this European research breakthrough is backed by gold-standard science, and it's available now. It's called UniLastin,™ and industry insiders are convinced it's going to completely change the way we care for our skin.

This exciting, patented new complex literally helps replace the saggy, wrinkled, old-looking surface with new, youthful, radiant-looking skin... making it thicker, denser, and firmer, increasing both collagen and elastin, and even decreasing the depth, width and length of wrinkles. Your skin will not only look younger... it will actually be younger!

And because it's an oral compound that works systemically (throughout the entire body), it has the inherent capacity to improve the skin all over... not just on your face, but from the end of your nose to the tips of your toes!

It's sort of like a facelift for the entire body... actually changing and improving the structure of your skin as it repairs itself from the inside out.

3 Is Stress Making You Look Older?

As if we didn't already know that stress makes you feel old, researchers have finally tied stress (even everyday, "ordinary" stress) to the rate at which our skin ages (it has to do with something called "accelerated telomere" [pronounced TEL-oh-mere] shortening… learn more at Relacore.com). The best way to slow down stress-related skin aging? Relacore® Extra. For those of you unfamiliar with it, Relacore Extra is a super popular anti-stress, feel-good pill most well known for its ability to reduce stress-related "belly bulge" (that's why it's called "America's #1 selling belly fat pill" AND the reason why the best place to find it is in the weight-control section of your local Walmart, RiteAid and Target store). Nevertheless, as more and more beauty editors are touting Relacore Extra as the new skin-care "must-have," Relacore Extra is being "reborn" as an anti-aging staple (oh, and the reduction in stress-related belly fat is a bonus!). About $29 USD (extremely affordable) at smarter retailers nationwide, direct from Carter-Reed at 1-800-236-0701 or online at www.Relacore.com. Use promo code RELACORE76 and get free shipping.†

4 How to Stay in Shape When You're Over 40

Our Favorite Way to Look Younger

No one wants to look old, fat and tired. But once you get past 40, staying in shape (or trying to get in shape!) is much harder. And with so many products on the market, how do you even know where to start? BodyLab® makes it easy with their Total Shape Up Kit.™ This complete, all-in-one, 30-day system (an exclusive online offer) includes their Triple Process Detox & Cleanse, Thermodynamic Total Burn,™ Probiotic Replenishment, Thermodynamic Preworkout Extender,™ and Fat Burning Protein. It has everything you need to jumpstart your transformation, cleanse and replenish your body, switch your metabolism into rapid fat-burning mode, fuel lean tissue, and even increase your calorie burn both during and for hours after your workout! Available exclusively at BodyLab.com or 1-800-220-1179 for a limited-time, introductory price of $99 (that's a $30 savings, plus get free shipping† when you use promo code SHAPEUP10).

5 Serious Dark Spots? [don't try to hide them] FIX THEM!

Nothing screams your "real" age louder than those telltale age spots. Bremenn Clinical (a company that's spent years researching pigment-correcting formulations like the world famous "Serious Dark Circles" cream, Hylexin®) has the solution. It's called, what else, Bremenn Clinical's Dark Spot Eraser.™ Dark Spot Eraser contains a powerful combination of super-effective skin lighteners and pigmentation modifiers that not only helps reduce the appearance of existing dark spots, but also addresses the appearance of future spot emergence, making it the ultimate solution for even the most serious dark spots. So don't try to hide those serious dark spots... fix them with Bremenn's Dark Spot Eraser. Available at Kohl's and smarter retailers nationwide, or directly from Bremenn Clinical at 1-800-506-1549 or BremennClinical.com. Use promo code DARKSPOT87 and get free shipping.†

THE PROOF IS IN THE PINTOS

Some fast food places will grab just any old beans and mix in a bunch of stuff like silicon dioxide, calcium chloride, and maltodextrin. At Chipotle, we start with the best beans available. Then we add onion, garlic, herbs, and citrus juice and simmer and simmer and simmer until they blow your mind.
